Editorial

As it has for fifty years, once again a full cycle has been completed. We have seen the mild September rains turn gradually into the white snows of January, and the snow in turn give way to spring and the rebirth of nature.

For us, the cycle has been completed only too soon and now we must depart from these halls.

We pledge to return to these scenes and to enjoy once again those happy sounds of West Night students!

The Voice Staff

Portrait of a School

Dr. Ray Lambert, Principal

The workings of the modern secondary high school is very complex. Capable leadership and an alert staff is needed to keep things running smoothly. West Night has been so fortunate in having both leadership and a hard-working staff.

Principal since 1944, Dr. Ray Lambert has been striving to improve the program of studies as well as the quality of instruction.

WEST NIGHT'S HARD WORKING STAFF

These four people help you get through high school. Among them, they make it possible for you to obtain the books and supplies you need, programs of studies, reports, office records, refreshments during the recess period, assemblies and, in addition, see that there are teachers for each class.

Any of you who had business to conduct in the office must remember the warm smile of our secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Carlyle.

Our Treasurer, Henry Wehman, does a multitude of work connected with the finances of a large night school. Henry has been with us since 1945. Mr. Ed Kipp, our bookroom manager has been with West Night both as a student as well as a staff-worker since the early '30s. Incidentally, Ed married a West Night student!

Mr. John Kuchenmeister is well-known for his handling of student activities, pictures and a host of other work.

The third issue of the EVENING SCHOOL VOICE is not only the last of the present school year but also the last under its present management.

Much as we regret to part with this work with which we are already in love, still, following the natural order of things we are compelled to step out of the way and leave our successors to take our place. We feel confident, however, that we have accomplished some good in founding this paper. More people than ever before are beginning to realize that there is such a place as the Night High School and that one who is desirous to learn can get as much there as in any other similar institution. The students, too, are friendlier to each other, and have more school spirit than in former years. The boys of 1905 therefore leave something behind them which it is hoped will be to their credit in later years. Judging from the amount of interest the boys of 1906 have taken ever since this paper has been in existence, we are sure that we leave it in the right hands and that they will try to improve it in every way possible. From experience we can say that though there are a great many

AMERICA'S NEWEST CITIZENS

Under the able leadership of Mr. Frank Novelli and Mr. William Meredith, America received into its embrace, several groups of first-class citizens. For many of these people, the simple ceremony of citizenship is the culmination of many years of hardship and uncertainty, sacrifice and suffering.

We are glad these fine people decided to become Americans. We wish them much happiness. They will demonstrate how free people can gain personal accomplishment and satisfaction.

America will be a better place because of these--our newest citizens!

The Annual Representatives had a big job!

West Night's Bowling League

After getting off to a somewhat shaky start at the Friars Lanes, the bowling league re-located itself in the Gibson Lanes.

The leading men bowlers were Don Wessel, Bill Grimes, Jack Bockholt, Martin Duncan, and Ron Wolsefer.

The leading women bowlers were Helen Duncan, Elsie Blum, and Mary L. Heim.

The bowling banquet was held on Saturday, June 4, at the Hotel Sinton. Trophy awards and lapel pin awards were made.

The Prom

The big social event of the year for the senior class was the prom which was held on Saturday evening, May 7, at the Grand Lounge of the Student Union Building at the University of Cincinnati.

Music in the modern sound was capably handled by Herbie Lane's Recording Orchestra.

At midnight, the prom King and Queen candidates were lined up for the voters. The candidates were:

Joyce Kindt
Janice Carrender
Cal Snyder
Jerry Poffenberger
Leonard Goldman
Louis Megas
Shirley Bridges

The first ballot resulted in a tie between Cal Snyder and Joyce Kindt for the Queen. The second ballot gave the crown to the senior class president, Cal Snyder!

Lou Megas was voted King!
